“ I don't know what I did to the other entry, but I messed it up. What was somehow omitted is my great admiration and respect for you Anthony and your mother. I remember you both so well while you were in my homeroom. Mrs. Warren, you were what lots of mothers should be to their children--loving and firm. You were determined for him to finish school, and you loved him enough to see to it he did a good job. I am sure, Anthony, that you were very upset with your parents at this time of your life, but they loved you greatly and wanted the best for you. I remember you all fondly and vividly.
May peace be with you, Billie Deaver Young

“ Lee Ruth, Anthony - Family, We are so sorry to learn of Junior's death. We did not know of his condition. We, too, have learned what being a diabetic is. Harlan is one. We are sorry that we did not get to his viewing or his funeral. Our deepest sympathy is extended to you. We look back at the good ole' days and remember Junior as a young and strong man. Time has a way of changing everything before we know it. May God comfort you during this time and in the days ahead. Our love,
Roberta
