“ We will always remember that beautiful smile and sweet hugs. She is smiling even bigger if that's possible right now. Ed, God be with you when all the folks are gone and the nights are long. You can take comfort in knowing she is just waiting for everyone to join her. I can just see her getting so excited when she discovers something even more grand when she is wandering around Heaven---Saying 'I've got to show this to Ed when he gets here'. Much love

“ I was so sorry to hear this week about Virginia. I'm not able to travel long distances any more, so I can't be there with you and your family, but you are in my thoughts. God bless you all.

“ Though I only had the sweet pleasure of knowing Virginia for just a little over a year she touched my heart and blessed my soul every time I saw her sweet face and felt her hugs. It brought a smile to my face every time I'd walk into church and see Virginia and Ed. I've told Richie numerous times that I want to be just like Virginia and Ed when we are in our 80's. What a precious couple who without a doubt love each other very much and their love for The Lord was always obvious to anyone who knows them. My heart goes out to Ed for I know he will miss her so much but I also know that he is smiling in his heart knowing she is with Jesus now and one day they will be together again. I love you Ed and will be here for you should you need anything at all. My prayers are with the entire family through these difficult days. Love to all of you.....Ann “ Virginia was such a sweet lady. I always went up and gave her and Ed a hug everytime I saw them at church and would pray with her when she would go to the alter. I miss her already but I'm happy knowing she is in Heaven with Jesus. Ed, I will be praying for you.

Love, Shelby

“ Mr. Ed and Family, We have kept all of you in our prayers during Ms. Virginia's hospital stay. The two of you were one of the most special couples we have ever met. Your love for each other was so obvious, as was your love for God. The last time we talked with you two, Ms. Virginia mentioned her heart issues, but she was bubbling over with her recent experience with the Lord that had her saying, 'I Know For Sure I'm Saved'. That affirmation of her Faith lets us know without a doubt that Ms. Virginia is with Our Heavenly Father right now, and even though our hearts are saddened by her leaving us, we can rejoice knowing she is HOME waiting to welcome us.

We love you and hold you in our hearts and prayers,

“ Ed - family: Bill - I am so sorry for the loss of Ms. Virginia. She was truly a 'Very Special Lady' to us and she will be sadly missed. We can only imagine the Joy she felt when she finally got to look upon our Lord's face. We can just see her clapping her hands with a great big smile on her face. We love you Ed.

“ Mrs. Wallace always was such a joy to be around, we will miss her so. She was such a light to others during their dark moments, she was always more concerned about others than herself. She will always have a special place in our hearts.

Ed, you and the family are in our prayers.
